The City of Hampton and Fort Monroe Partner to Air Virtual Fourth of July Special

Hampton, Virginia- The City of Hampton and Fort Monroe Fourth of July Special will air on the Hampton City Channel, Cox 47 and FIOS 22, at 7 pm on July 4, 2020. Viewers will also be able to view the [live web feed \[hampton.granicus.com\]](http://hampton.granicus.com).

While there will not be an in-person fireworks show at Fort Monroe this year, the special production will feature Hampton's great Fourth of July traditions including a virtual fireworks show, music by the U.S. Army TRADOC Band, flag ceremony by the National Park Service and greetings and well wishes from citizens, organizations and businesses all around Hampton.

Partially bordered by the Hampton Roads harbor and Chesapeake Bay, Hampton, with the 344,000 sq. ft. Hampton Roads Convention Center and the award-winning Hampton Coliseum, is located in the center of Coastal Virginia and the Hampton Roads metropolitan area. Hampton is the site of America's first continuous English-speaking settlement, the site of the first arrival of Africans in English North America, and is home to such visitor attractions as the Virginia Air & Space Center, Fort Monroe National Monument, Hampton History Museum, harbor tours and cruises, Hampton University Museum, The American Theatre, among others.
