Hampton Roads Convention Center Welcomes the Return of the Ninth Annual Hampton Roads Tattoo Arts Festival March 22-24

Hampton, Virginia- In less than a week, March 22-24, the Hampton Roads Convention Center welcomes the return of the Ninth annual Hampton Roads Tattoo Arts Festival. Presented by Folk City Tattoo and Twisted Ink magazine, this highly anticipated event will celebrate all aspects of the tattooing industry and welcome talented artists from across the country. This year the festival will once again take up two exhibit halls!

“It’s our 9th year in Hampton and this show is always our biggest and our best,” said festival organizer John Cann. “The Enigma is returning and this time, he’ll be giving a limited number of tattoos, something he’s never done before at this show.”

During the event, interested attendees have the option of speaking with tattoo artists from across the country and having the work performed on-site at the convention center. The cost of each tattoo is in addition to the entrance fee and is negotiated between customer and artist. Please note that many artists book fast and the best way to secure a tattoo at the festival is to set appointments with artists before the event.

“This year we have roughly 300 tattoo artists,” said Cann. “If you want to meet many great custom tattoo artists all under one roof, this is the festival to attend.”

The festival will feature several new and returning contests and activities, including the Seventh annual Kids Temporary Tattoo Contest and Best Booth. The Kids Temporary Tattoo Contest (ages 12 and under) will take place on Sunday, March 24 with up to 30 participants receiving a ribbon. First, Second, and Third place winners will receive trophies.

Another big highlight of this year’s festival is the Eighth annual Miss Hampton Roads Pin-Up Girl Contest, taking place Saturday, March 23. Twenty pre-selected finalists will show in their pin-up inspired garb of the 50’s, 60’s, and 70’s to compete for top prize ($2500 in total prizes, including $1000 cash).

Other highlights of this year’s festival include daily categorized tattoo contests, art vendors, tattoo supply vendors, BMX Stunt Team, live mural painting, and more. Returning for their second year in a row is Tragedy, an all-metal tribute band to the Bee Gees. Team TDH will also be on-site, testing the limitations of the human body through suspension.

“The purpose of the Hampton Roads Tattoo Arts Festival is to provide a festive environment and entertainment for tattoo enthusiasts and those just curious about tattoos,” said Cann. “It is an opportunity to bring our colorful community together under one roof for a weekend of fun and camaraderie.”
