Shipwreck Festival Coming to Hampton for a Full Day of Tribute Rock at the Vanguard

Saturday, April 4 - Tickets Just $15

Hampton, VA – The Shipwreck Festival kicks off in Hampton on Saturday, April 4, bringing a full day of high-energy tribute rock to The Vanguard Brewpub. With an affordable ticket price of just $15, the festival offers an accessible, community-driven live music experience for fans across Hampton Roads. The Shipwreck Festival is sponsored and founded by the owners of the Hampton record store, Bohemian Amigos, as well as the founder of the Hampton festival, Supernova Ska Festival.

This year's lineup features a dynamic mix of tribute acts celebrating some of rock's most iconic artists, including performances by Motorshed, Thunderstruck, and MiniKiss. From classic riffs to larger-than-life stage presence, Shipwreck Festival delivers the sights and sounds of legendary bands in an intimate, up-close setting.

Designed as an early-season kickoff for live music in Hampton, Shipwreck Festival blends the energy of a full-scale festival with the welcoming atmosphere of a local venue. Hosted at The Vanguard Brewpub, the event offers craft beverages, a lively crowd, and a chance to experience multiple bands throughout the day—all under one roof.

"Shipwreck Festival is about bringing people together for a fun, no-frills day of great live music," said Tim Receveur, organizer of the event.

The festival will take place during the day, making it an easy addition to weekend plans while still delivering a full concert experience.
