Luca Burgalassi Quintet Performs for Hampton History Museum Music Series June 20

Hampton, VA- Italian guitarist, composer and singer-songwriter Luca Burgalassi brings his interpretation of the American sound, accompanied by four accomplished musicians, to the Hampton History Museum's music series on Wednesday, June 20, 6:00 p.m. -8:00 p.m.

Now residing in Yorktown, Burgalassi embraced American roots music at an early age and made it his own. He began studying music at the age of 6, writing and performing his songs live by the age of 12. An acoustic and electric guitar virtuoso, he also plays several folk instruments including banjo, mandolin, lap steel guitar and harmonica. Burgalassi has released four albums exploring the great American songwriters and West Coast music, and has performed his music throughout Europe.

The quintet is Luca Burgalassi: vocals, guitars, harmonica; Valentina Sorbera: vocals; Holly Kirsten: vocals, violin; Dave Hufstедler: bass; and Rick Jebavy: drums
